52.212-2--Evaluation -- Commercial Items (Jan 1999)

(a) The Government will award an IDIQ contract resulting from this solicitation to the responsible offeror that is technically acceptable low. The technical acceptability will be determined and conducted by technical experts, after receipt of proposal(s). The technical factors to be evaluated are:

- Technical capability of the item offered to meet the Government requirement
- Price

The proposals will be evaluated and assigned a rating. The proposals will be rated on a Go, No Go basis.

(b) A written notice of award or acceptance of an offer, mailed or otherwise furnished to the successful offeror within the time for acceptance specified in the offer, shall result in a binding contract without further action by either party. Before the offer's specified expiration time, the Government may accept an offer (or part of an offer), whether or not there are negotiations after its receipt, unless a written notice of withdrawal is received before award.
